TWO INJURED IN A STREET ACCIDENT

On One of the Benwood Electric Cars. Crossed Wires Let Loose the Electricity.

THEN THERE WAS A PANIC

Causing Several Passengers to Jump. Motorman and a Woman Passenger Injured.

Yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, on Jacob street, below Forty-second, street car No. 36, in charge of Motorman Scanlon and Conductor Parry, burned out, and resulted in injuring J. J. Scanlon, the motorman, and Miss Elizabeth Hornbrook, one of the passengers who leaped from the car in their excitement.

Motorman Scanlon was at his post at the front of the car, when suddenly there was a brilliant flash, and he either jumped or fell from the car from the shock. The car contained eight or ten passengers, and four of them were women. Three of the women jumped from the car, one of them, Miss Elizabeth Hornbrook, receiving severe injuries.

Mr. Scanlon was picked up and carried into the office of Dr. H. T. Ford, where it was found he suffered from a contusion about three inches in length, on the back of his neck. He was in an unconscious condition, and when removed to his home in Benwood, about an hour later, he was still in a semi-conscious condition. He suffers mainly from the shock, and will recover.

Miss Hornbrook was also carried to Dr. Ford's office, and an examination revealed the fact that she suffered from concussion of the brain, besides some lesser bruises on her limbs. The shock threw her into convulsions, and though she has rallied she still has a weak circulation. It was thought she was dead when picked up, and she was still in a half-conscious condition when removed to her home, below Fortieth street, about an hour later. When Dr. Ford called later to see Miss Hornbrook she was vomiting, but he says she suffers principally from the shock, and that she will recover.

The accident was caused by the wires in the machinery of the cars becoming weakene by Monday's storm becoming crossed, and producing a short circuit.

THE CAMP MEETING.

Tuesday's Services Were Remarkable for the Deep Interest Displayed. Epworth League Day Next Saturday.

At the Moundsville camp meeting the sessions are increasing greatly in interest. All the meetings yesterday were full of the old time fire and as one expressed it, "brought back the happy times of long ago, when people came to camp meeting for the good there was in it and not merely to see and be seen." There are some people who live in the past. They see no good in the present whatever. But these persons are few in number and yesterday's services showed that there are persons who are thinking of how they ought to live now. They are willing to let the past be in the past and their motto is, "What are you now?" rather than "What were you forty or fifty years ago?" The very best of feeling prevails at all the meetings and much good will be accomplished.

The early morning was one of great profit to those in attendance. A goodly number attended the 9 o'clock service, which was led by Rev. George S. Fuller. The interest was so great, that it was almost impossible to dismiss, and had not the time for preaching services arrived it is hard to tell when it would have stopped.

At the 10:30 service Rev. G. D. Smith led in prayer. Rev. J. W. Beddow, of Cameron, preached from the words, "If the Son therefore hath made you free, you shall be free indeed." The sermon was a very able one and was heard by a good sized audience. A few of the points made were as follows: We are in bondage, but we may be free. The speaker said he was glad he belonged to a church that believed in freedom; that all men are created free. We are under the bondage of fleshly appetite; the monster Intemperance is stalking abroad, enslaving even Christians, sometimes reaching the sacred desk. Our ministers are too modest to speak of its bad effects. Lust is ruining and has ruined some of our very best men and women. This is just as bad among men as women, though social custom does not always think so. The sins of men are mitigated, while a fallen woman can never rise. Then there is the sin of gluttony, which alone destroys many; we think more of our body than of our souls. Gambling is damning thousands. It even enters our churches. Laziness holds thousands of church members in bondage. The Lord will have teachers in his vineyard. Bad temper is another evil. We all need to control our tempers, but we cannot do it, until the Son shall make us free. How are we to be made free, from all these? Christ alone can make us free.

The children's meeting at 1:30 was still more interesting than the day preceding. About sixty children were present. Miss Scott held them all for nearly an hour. There was perfect order. Rev. C. H. Maloney assisted at the organ, and in the singing. He sang a solo to the great delight of the children. There were many old folks present as interested spectators.

At 3:30 the exercises opened with prayer by Rev. W. D. Rinson, of Fulton; Rev. U. S. G. Carroll, of McMechen, preached. His text was "And upon this rock shall I build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." The sermon was a remarkable one as to force and power. The speaker did not mince his words. He believed that Christ did not mean that it was upon Peter he would build his church. This doctrine is nonsensical, though believed by a great church. He meant himself. The speaker then gave his opinions as to why we do not have success at our camp meetings. There are too many other things going on in and around the grounds. What is needed is to get down to the business of saving souls. The sermon throughout was eloquently delivered, and made a deep impression on the audience, which was larger than usual for an afternoon service.

Dr. Yocum preached at night, as usual, and with power, both as to delivery and argument. Dr. Yocum's whole soul is in the work, and he thinks the interest is on the increase.

Notes of the Day.

The annual election was held yesterday afternoon, and the following persons were elected directors of the camp meeting association for four years, viz: D. W. Ruble, C. H. Snedeker, W. C. Riggs, J. T. Cowell, J. A. Ewing and J. W. Kennen, and N. W. Beck, for three years, to fill the unexpired term of James W. Bodley, resigned.

Rev. N. B. Johnson and wife, of Manington; Rev. C. H. Maloney, of Zane street, Wheeling, and W. D. Renson, of Fulton, are late arrivals.

Every one is looking forward to Epworth League Day, which is next Saturday, and doubtless it will be the big day of the meeting. Dr. Berry, national secretary of the league, will be present and that alone will be sufficient to bring together a great crowd of leaguers from all over the state. If the members of the league everywhere make a proper effort the crowd of young people will be the largest ever gathered on the grounds. Dr. Berry has the reputation of being a great pulpit orator and the leaguers will no doubt give a great reception.

The storm of Monday night purified the atmosphere, making everything in fine order for the services. Quite an excitement was created by the fire from the lightning striking General Price's barn.

THREE WARRANTS

Issued by Humane Officer Echols, Alleging Brutality to Horses.

Humane Officer Echols swore out warrants for John Brentner and another man, at Moundsville Monday, charging them with unmercifully beating and torturing a team of horses belonging to Livestockman McFadden, of that place. They had the horses out for three days and returned with one horse in a half-dead condition. The other animal was in such shape that it could not return and it was left twenty miles out in the country.

Mr. Echols also swore out a warrant for Frank Leasure, who is alleged to conduct a speak-easy at Glendale. Last Friday morning at 11 o'clock he hitched a team of horses and at 12 o'clock in the evening they were still standing, when Cliff Eden took pity on them and took them to Kull's stable and had them watered and fed.

"MERCHANTS' DAY."

The Committee in Charge of the Affair Has Not Met With Success.

A member of the committee in charge of the proposed "Merchants' Day," when seen yesterday afternoon stated that they had not met with the success anticipated in their canvass of the Main street business district for the necessary funds to defray the expense of the proposed fire works display. There seems to be a disinclination among the merchants to have "Merchants' Day" during state fair week, the plea being that the visitors won't transact business at that time. Some of the merchants were in favor of having the function in October, while others say they see nothing in "Merchants' Day" at any time, alleging that the visitors come to town for fun pure and simple, and not for business, and hence the business houses derive no benefits. This latter view, however, is the narrow one, and is not generally held. If "Merchants' Day" is to be given during the fair, the promoters have only the remainder of the present week in which to raise the funds, as it will require two weeks or more to get the fireworks display.

COFFEE AND HEART DISEASE.

Slowly and Surely Affects the Heart's Action.

"My heart seemed to be jumping out of my body one morning after I had used some coffee, clear, without cream or sugar—for I had been told that coffee would not hurt me if used that way. We were all greatly frightened at the serious condition of my heart until I remembered that it might be from the coffee.

"So when the trouble passed off, I concluded never to use coffee again. It had hurt me greatly, used in the ordinary way with cream and sugar, but I had hoped that it would be less harmful without the cream and sugar, but the result was no better.

"Since that time we have been using Postum Cereal Food Coffee, and my heart has never troubled me at all. We are all delighted with the Postum, because we know how to make it, and know how valuable it is as a health beverage.

"In speaking to a friend lately about Postum Cereal, she said she did not like it. I found the reason was that it had not been made properly. After I told her to take four heaping teaspoons of Postum to the pint of water and let it boil full fifteen minutes after the real boiling started, she was greatly delighted with it, and has been using it since, and has been very much better in health. Yours truly, Mrs. L. S. McElliamey, 1218 St. N. W., Washington, D. C.

THE ANNUAL "PRESS DAY" AT THE PARK

Was Thoroughly Enjoyed by Newspapermen and Their Friends Yesterday Afternoon.

COL. ROLF DOES THE HONORS

Most Hospitably—Responses to Toasts by Messrs. Hook, Robertson and Others.

Seated about the festal board last evening at Wheeling Park, a number of local newspaper men and their friends expressed the sentiment of the assembly, when they drank to the toast proposed by Colonel George Hook, "Here's many more happy days and a pleasant old age to our gracious host, Col. August Rolf."

For years past it has been the custom of Colonel Rolf to invite the press to spend a certain afternoon at the Park in the month of June, "when the roses and magnolias are in bloom," as he expressed it, when they might lay aside the cares of the daily grind and give themselves up to the beauties of pastoral life. This year, however, he was unable to issue the invitation, at the accustomed period, on account of the busy season, and the day was deferred until later in the summer.

In a short talk to his guests yesterday, Colonel Rolf said: "My reason for giving this yearly outing to the press is not for the publicity it might give our park, nor is it in return for favors bestowed, but I believe you deserve more recognition than you receive, and for one, I am anxious to make your burdens lighter and your cares less. You work harder, and your hours are longer than any other class of men, and I believe your pleasures are more limited. It gratifies me to be in a position to entertain you and I trust that in the years to come it may be my pleasure to extend to you this annual hospitality."

The banquet at which Colonel Rolf thus expressed himself, followed an afternoon of bowling in which a number of those present participated. The bowling contests were noted for the emulation that was manifested by the two teams, and especially for the high scores made by a number of poor players. However, it was never suggested that the scorers were bribed, nor that false additions were "rung in." Following is the score according to Prof. Schockey's figures:

At the banquet table, Hon. H. F. Behrens opened the oratorical part of the programme by speaking of "Press Day," of which he is a yearly participant. He spoke of his friendship for the "boys," and expressed a hope that this may continue to be one of the features of Wheeling journalism. He was followed by Colonel George Hook, who dwelt on the "Power of the Press." His humorous references to the Shanghai dispatches in the London papers created considerable merriment, and he was loudly cheered when he described how the press can make and unmake men.

County Clerk Richard Robertson, who is dubbed the "Romeo Freer of Ohio county," was called on and pleased his audience in discussing the subject, "It's all right."

Charley Hennings was called out and like the old Methodist, who had grown gray in a good cause, was glad he was there and referred to the many acts of kindness bestowed upon him by the newspaper boys.

Will W. Irwin was happy in a few remarks on the occasion, and also proposed a toast to the genial host to be drunk standing, but inasmuch as the glasses were all empty, he was congratulated on his tact in securing another drink without asking for it.

City Clerk Tom O'Brien said it was the first time in history that an Irishman ever followed a Dutchman, but that he would try and be equal to the occasion. His remarks relating to the hospitality of Colonel Rolf were heartily cheered. H. C. Ogden, of the News; Charles H. Taney, of the Register; Fred Colmar, of the Staats Zeitung, and John H. Snodgrass, of the Intelligencer, responded in behalf of their respective papers, and expressed their appreciation for Colonel Rolf's generosity and thoughtfulness.

C. O. Roemer also was one of the post-prandial orators, and Chief Clemans delighted the audience with an Irish dialect song. Press Day was closed by a ride on the Merry-go-round, and after three rousing cheers for Colonel Rolf, the guests returned to the city.

The management of the Wheeling & Elm Grove motor line and Secretary Hirsch, of the Park Association, deserve more than passing notice for the part they took in making it a pleasant afternoon for those present.
